		Guidance for applicants to the UKPHR Practitioner Scheme with principally overseas experience.	UKPHR Practitioner registration is a UK certification. As a result, applicants must show experience and knowledge of UK working and systems. Overseas experience is valued and can be used to support the UK knowledge and experience. UKPHR registration will give a UK employer assurance that a person has the appropriate competencies to operate effectively and autonomously as a Public Health practitioner. In order to apply to a local scheme to become registered as a public health practitioner you will need to be working in the UK. Applicants will be required to demonstrate at least 2 years of experience of autonomous practice in a public health role. Applicants will be required to compile a portfolio which is assessed to demonstrate knowledge, understanding and application of UKPHR's Practitioner Standards.  A number of standards require explicit evidence to be submitted of knowledge, understanding and application experience within the UK.  Standards where this UK knowledge or experience is explicitly required are:  1.1 Comply with statutory legislation and practice requirements in your own area of work.  1.3 Act in ways that promote equality and diversity.  2.2 Manage data and information in compliance with policy and protocol, demonstrating awareness of data confidentiality and disclosure.

			In addition, the final reference and testimonial (Annexe C and D Supporting Information) must be completed by a Manager or Public Health Professional colleague working in the UK.
